

The Godolphin Arms Marazion

Sector: Leisure

Client: St Aubyn Estates

Scope of Works: Mechanical and Electrical Installations Refurb

Contract Value: £404,000

Employed by Cornish Heritage Builders, Totus are very proud to have been involved in the refit of the Godolphin Arms Hotel, Marazion for the owners Lord and Lady St Levan.

The refurbishment of the ground floor, lower ground floor, bar and restaurant areas along with services for a new kitchen consisted of the following:

On the reopening evening for the hotel Lord St Levan “congratulated and thanked” Totus for the “first class” works undertaken helping to achieve the excellent new look for the hotel.

Services Provided:

- New Boilers and heating system
- Air conditioning to the restaurant areas
- Rewiring of the electrical services
- New lighting and power
- New Fire Alarm, security and CCTV systems
- Upgraded data and new epos system